FIRST PITCH

Texas Tech opens its 65th season of baseball this weekend hosting No. 3 Indiana for a four-game series at Dan Law Field at Rip Griffin Park. The Red Raiders are led by second-year head coach Tim Tadlock who guided Tech to a 26-30 record in 2013 while tallying the second most wins in school history by a TTU first-year head coach. Tech returns eight positions players from last year that started at least 20 games and also welcome back eight pitchers that made starts in 2013. This season marks the sixth consecutive year that Tech is opening its season at home. The Red Raiders have won five straight Opening Day contests. Indiana is coming off its best season in school history after its first-ever appearance at the College World Series (first by a Big Ten program in 29 years) with a 49-16 overall record in 2013. The Hoosiers return 22 letterwinners, including eight position starters and 10 pitchers. Indiana has four players who have received preseason All-America honors.

HEAD COACH TIM TADLOCK

The Tim Tadlock head coaching era at Texas Tech began in 2013 with a 26-30 overall record and with a 9-15 record in Big 12 play with an eighth-place finish in the league while advancing to the Big 12 Championship.

Tadlock was named head coach of the Texas Tech baseball program on June 8, 2012, becoming the ninth head coach in program history. Tadlock will enter his 22nd year in collegiate baseball in 2014, which will mark his second as head coach at Texas Tech.

Regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country, Tadlock has already started making his mark as the head coach of the Red Raiders in the Big 12 Conference.

In his first season the Red Raiders broke all-time school records for fielding percentage (.974) and double plays turned in a season (68). His program knocked off five nationally-ranked opponents, including the defending national champion Arizona Wildcats in Tucson.

In fact, Tadlock led the Red Raiders to three consecutive wins over ranked opponents – a first by the Texas Tech program in 11 years.

During his first season, the Red Raiders fielded the youngest team in the country with a nation-leading 22 newcomers. Tadlock and his coaching staff developed their young roster throughout the season while the Red Raiders won eight of their final 14 games of the season advancing to Oklahoma City for the Big 12 Championship.

The Red Raiders won their Big 12 Conference series opener in 2013 taking two of three games over Texas in Austin. It marked the first time Tech had won a series over the Longhorns in Austin since 2001 and was Tech's first series win over Texas since 2002.

Tech had two Freshmen All-Americans (1B Eric Gutierrez, C/DH Jarrard Poteete) during Tadlock's first season along with four All-Big 12 selections (one All-Freshman team pick), four Academic All-Big 12 picks and three Major League Baseball Draft picks, including fifth rounder right-handed pitcher Trey Masek.

Tadlock's ability to recruit top-notch players in the state of Texas and throughout the country – both at the high school and junior college levels – became apparent quickly in his time at Tech while in just his seventh month on the job with his first-full season recruiting class ranked 24th in the nation by Perfect Game.

Tadlock returned to his alma mater for the 2012 season as the program's associate head coach and recruiting coordinator following six successful seasons as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma.

During his one season at Tech as the associate head coach/recruiting coordinator, the Red Raiders had a school-record nine MLB Draft picks, including first-round selection center fielder Barrett Barnes, who became the third highest draft pick in school history with the 45th overall pick.

The nine MLB Draft picks in 2012 ranked second in the nation only behind Arizona State's 10 draft selections. The nine draft picks marked the fifth most in Big 12 history.

Tadlock has coached 118 MLB Draft picks – including 16 players who have advanced to the big leagues. He has mentored at least one draft pick during the last 19 seasons and has coached three first-round selections, 11 players taken in the top five rounds and 24 selections in the top-10 rounds of the draft during his coaching career.

Tadlock's players have heard their names called a lot recently in the MLB Draft with 42 selections over the last four years (2010-13). Six years during his coaching career Tadlock has had at least nine players taken in the draft.

Tadlock produced several of the nation's top recruiting classes while an assistant coach at Oklahoma, helping lead the Sooners back to the College World Series in 2010, the Sooners first trip to Omaha since 1995.

It didn't take Tadlock long to make his mark on the recruiting trail at Oklahoma, as his 2006 recruiting class ranked fourth nationally by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. The No. 4 ranking was the best for the Sooners since 1987.

Tadlock also had top-25 nationally ranked recruiting classes by Baseball America in 2006 (11th), 2009 (16th), 2010 (21st) and 2012 (13th). In addition, OU's 2012 recruiting class received a No. 4 ranking by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

During his time at Oklahoma (2006-2011), the Sooners made five trips to the NCAA Tournament with two Super Regional appearances in 2006 and 2010 while making it back to the College World Series in Omaha in 2010. It marked OU's first time to make five post-season appearances in a six year span since 1987-1992.

The Sooners had unparalleled success at the plate under Tadlock's guidance. Oklahoma batted over .300 during all six of his seasons – first time for OU since 1995-2000 – and his 2009 and 2010 clubs combined for 195 home runs, the most ever at Oklahoma in consecutive seasons while leading the Big 12 in homers both years. The Sooners 104 home runs in 2010 rank second all-time in Oklahoma history.

In 2011, Tadlock coached 11 players at OU who were selected in the MLB Draft, a total that matched the all-time Big 12 record (Texas, 2007).

After beginning his coaching career as an assistant at Hill College (1993-96) for four seasons, Tadlock became the head coach at Grayson County Junior College, where he led the Vikings to back-to-back National Junior College Athletic Association World Series titles (1999-00).

During his nine seasons at Grayson, Tadlock posted a 435-127 (.774) overall record while being named National Coach of the Year following both title runs (1999-2000) He led the Vikings to five Region V championships which culminated in five trips to the JUCO World Series. Tadlock coached eight players at Grayson County that earned All-America honors.

The Red Raiders have benefited from six players that transferred to Tech from Tadlock's program at Grayson. Included in those student-athletes are Texas Tech All-American shortstop Cameron Blair (2004-05) and former Major League catcher Trey Lunsford (1999-00).

During his nine-year tenure at Grayson (1997-2005), Tadlock recorded the highest winning percentage of any collegiate baseball coach, including all two and four-year institutions, with a .774 winning percentage. While at Grayson, Tadlock also served as the school's director of athletics, a position he held during his final five years at the junior-college level.

After a prep career at Denton High School and two years at Hill College, Tadlock was a two-year starting shortstop for the Red Raiders while helping Texas Tech to its first-ever 40-win season as a senior in 1991 (42-18).

In his two-year career at Tech, Tadlock played in 120 games, batted .289 (120-for-415) with 96 runs scored, 19 doubles, four triples, eight home runs, 68 RBI, 71 walks, 65 strikeouts and was 28-of-41 in stolen bases. Tadlock played for legendary coach Larry Hays while at Texas Tech.

Tadlock graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education from Texas Tech in May 1992. He also earned a master's degree in education in August 1994 from the University of Texas at Tyler. Tadlock and his wife, Kelly, have two children, daughter, Chloe (12 – April 10), and son, Benjamin (10 – Aug. 4). Tadlock is originally from Denton, Texas and was born December 21, 1968.

Tech's only loss on Opening Day over the last 13 years came against No. 19 Louisiana-Lafayette (0-4) in San Antonio on February 23, 2008.

OPENING DAY IN LUBBOCK

Tech has been nearly unbeatable when hosting Opening Day on their home turf with a 28-5 all-time record. The Red Raiders have won 14 consecutive Opening Day games at home while its last loss came during its Big 12 championship season in 1997 against TCU (1-10) on February 11. In fact, since 1986, Texas Tech is 20-1 on Opening Day in its home ballpark. The Red Raiders will be playing their sixth consecutive Opening Day at home while playing its first-ever game against Indiana.

TEXAS TECH IN HOME OPENERS - 28-1 SINCE 1985

Texas Tech has experienced remarkable success in home openers since 1985 with a 28-1 record. The Red Raiders only loss the past 29 years in home openers was during their Big 12 championship season in 1997 with a 10-1 loss against TCU in Lubbock. The Red Raiders have won 16 consecutive home openers while scoring at least 10 runs in nine of those games.

TADLOCK LOOKING FOR SECOND STRAIGHT OPENING DAY VICTORY

Tim Tadlock is trying to become the fifth head coach in school history to win his first two Opening Day games while joining E.Y. Freeland (1926-27), Kal Segrist (1968-69), Gary Ashby (1984-85) and Dan Spencer (2009-10). Tadlock made his career debut as head coach in style last season becoming the first head coach in school history to post a shutout during his coaching debut (8-0, vs. Northern Illinois).

INDIANA ALL-TIME SERIES

Tech and Indiana face off for the first time this weekend while the Hoosiers mark the Red Raiders seventh all-time opponent from the Big Ten. The last time Tech played a team from the Big Ten was in 2011 when the Red Raiders took on Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska (then a member of the Big 12) and Northwestern. Tech is 33-33 all-time against current Big Ten Conference opponents, which includes a 21-31 record against Nebraska while all meetings with the Huskers came during their time in the Big 12. Tech is 1-0 against Illinois, 2-0 against Iowa, 4-0 against Michigan, 4-2 against Northwestern and 1-0 against Ohio State. In fact, Tech has won 10 consecutive games against teams in the Big Ten (league members at time of contest).

DOMINIC MORENO GETS OPENING DAY START FOR SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

Junior RHP pitcher Dominic Moreno has been named the Red Raiders starting pitcher on Opening Day for the second straight season. Moreno was nearly flawless in his career debut on Opening Day a year ago while providing one of the top performances in school history on Opening Day. Moreno earned the win during an 8-0 shutout over Northern Illinois striking out 11 batters - most by a Red Raider on Opening Day in over 27 years - in six innings allowing five hits and three walks in a 97-pitch performance.

--- Moreno is the first Red Raider to start on Opening Day in back-to-back seasons since Chad Bettis (2009-10).

--- Moreno is just the fifth Red Raider to start on Opening Day in back-to-back seasons since 1987.

Segrist coached the first eight All-Americans in school history while also mentoring Texas Tech's first 10 Major League Baseball Draft Picks. Proudfoot has made 106 career starts (103 at SS) in two seasons.

TADLOCK LOOKS TO CONTINUE SUCCESS AT HOME AGAINST NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Head coach Tim Tadlock led the Red Raiders to a 14-3 record against non-conference opponents at home during his first season at the helm. Tech had notable non-conference wins at home in 2013 against No. 20 Arizona State (3/19), New Mexico State, No. 17 New Mexico and Dallas Baptist to name a few.

BURLESON ENTERS SEASON WITH CAREER-HIGH 14-GAME HIT STREAK

Texas Tech junior infielder Bryant Burleson ended the 2013 season on a career-best 14-game hit streak. That marked the longest hit streak by a Red Raider to close a season since Anthony Arnerich closed the 2001 season with a 17-game streak. Burleson's streak spanned nearly a month (April 27-May 25) while batting .351 (20-for-57) with six runs, two doubles, nine RBI, five walks and a .403 on-base percentage.

DROZD ENTERS SEASON WITH 17.2 CONSECUTIVE SCORELESS INNINGS PITCHED

Senior LHP Jonny Drozd enters the 2014 season with 17.2 consecutive innings pitched. Drozd closed his junior season in 2013 with an impressive run of scoreless baseball. Drozd's scoreless innings streak includes a pair of starts and a relief outing that ended his 2013 season. Drozd pitched 7.2 scoreless innings in a start against No. 19 Oklahoma State (5/5/13) before pitching six scoreless innings in his final start of the season against Baylor in the final Big 12 series of the season (5/17). Drozd then pitched four scoreless frames in relief in the Big 12 Championship against Baylor (5/25). In addition, Drozd put together a scoreless innings pitched streak of 18.2 innings (March 12-30, 2013) earlier during his junior season.

PROUDFOOT AND BURLESON NEAR CAREER MILESTONE

The Red Raiders have just three players on its roster that were in uniform for the 2012 season - senior catcher Mason Randolph and junior infielders Bryant Burleson and Tim Proudfoot. Both of the Red Raider middle infielders are now nearing a career milestone - 100 base hits. Both players are close to reaching 100 hits as Burleson enters the season with 91 career hits in 101 games played while Proudfoot is just one hit behind (90 hits) while having played in 107 games played.

Texas Tech Active Players - Most Career Base Hits

Bryant Burleson (2012-Present)	91
Tim Proudfoot (2012-Present)	90
Devon Conley (2013-Present)	62
Mason Randolph (2011-Present)	55
Jake Barrios (2013-Present)	55
Eric Gutierrez (2013-Present)	48

RANDOLPH GIVES TEXAS TECH IS LONE FOURTH-YEAR SENIOR

Texas Tech catcher Mason Randolph has been around for a while now - not just because the senior catcher is from Lubbock - graduating in 2010 from Coronado High School - but because he is the only fourth-year senior on the Red Raiders roster. Randolph entered the season having played in 86 career games (66 starts) with a .237 (55-for-232) career average with 38 runs, 11 doubles, three home runs and 28 RBI while starting in 42 games in 2013 as a junior behind the plate.

DAMRON & MOSELEY CHOSE TEXAS TECH OVER MLB OPPORTUNITIES

Texas Tech had two student-athletes decide to start a collegiate career and bypass the opportunity to sign with a Major League Baseball organization as both RHP Ryan Moseley (Lubbock, Texas/Cooper HS) and LHP Ty Damron (Krum, Texas/Krum HS) pass on MLB offers after being selected in the 2013 MLB Draft. Moseley, who went 10-2 with a 1.78 ERA with 111 strikeouts in 78.2 innings as a senior, was taken in the 36th round of the draft by the Tampa Bay Rays. Damron, who was the only draft pick the Dodgers didn't sign that was taken in the top 15 rounds, was the 13th round pick by the Dodgers. Damron went 8-2 as a senior with a 1.00 ERA with 138 strikeouts allowing just 40 walks. Damron became the highest drafted incoming Red Raider to make it to campus since 2007 when Chad Bettis was taken in the eighth round by the Astros. Bettis was a second round pick out of Tech following his junior season in 2010 and made his MLB debut in 2013 with the Rockies.

LEADING OFF FOR THE RED RAIDERS ...

Taking a closer look at the Red Raiders first time at the plate to start a season shows that Tech has scored at least one run in the first inning in 11 of the last 13 Opening Day games. When looking at the Red Raiders leadoff hitter in the first inning, Tech's first man to the plate during a new season is 5-for-10 with three walks, two strikeouts and once reaching base on error since 2001. Tech's leadoff batter has scored in the first inning eight times over the last 13 years.
