HEAD COACH TIM TADLOCK

Tim Tadlock, the 2014 College Baseball Hall of Fame National Coach of the Year, took the Red Raiders to the College World Series in just his second season while winning the program's first-ever NCAA Regional and Super Regional titles in 2014.

Tadlock and the Red Raiders completed the biggest turnaround in school history and the second biggest turnaround in Big 12 history going from 26 wins in 2013 to 45 wins in 2014.

Tadlock was named head coach of the Texas Tech baseball program on June 8, 2012, becoming the ninth head coach in program history. Tadlock coached his 22nd year in collegiate baseball in 2014.

In two seasons, Tadlock has led the Red Raiders to a 71-51 overall record with a 23-25 record in Big 12 play. The Red Raiders historic 2014 season included winning 45 games (4th most wins in school history), setting 10 school records, defeating 12 nationally-ranked programs – six top-10 teams – receiving 18 consecutive national rankings, which spanned the entire season and sweeping six series (3 Big 12 series) with a No. 8 national ranking in the final poll of the season.

Tadlock was named the ABCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year as well as the Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year while guiding the Red Raiders to their best season in school history with a 45-21 record and 14-10 Big 12 mark. Tech posted just the sixth 40-win regular season in school history while claiming its first-ever NCAA Regional title at the Coral Gables Regional hosted by No. 3 nationally-ranked Miami (Fla.). Tech won the regional with three wins, two of them coming against Miami on its home field.

Tech returned to Lubbock the following week for its first-ever NCAA Super Regional where Red Raider fans sold-out Rip Griffin Park within 40 minutes of tickets going on sale. Tech responded with two thrilling 1-0 shutouts over No. 16 College of Charleston to punch its ticket to Omaha for the first time in school history. On the way, Tech became just the second team in NCAA Super Regional history (since 1999) to post back-to-back shutouts (2002 – LSU) and is the first team to ever win back-to-back 1-0 games in a Super Regional.

The Red Raider pitching staff shined during the postseason in 2014 with a 0.76 ERA in eight games while posting 64 scoreless innings (72 innings played), including 27 consecutive scoreless frames in three straight shutouts and tying an NCAA all-time record with four shutouts in a postseason. Texas Tech joined Cal State Fullerton (2004), Pepperdine (1992), Arizona State (1972), Florida State (1970), St. John's (1968) and Wake Forest (1955) as the only teams in college baseball history to tally four shutouts in a single NCAA postseason. In fact, it was the first time since 1976 that the Red Raiders had posted three straight shutouts at any point of the season.

Also in 2014, Tadlock led Tech to 14 league wins – the program's most since 2004 – while picking up his 500th collegiate career win in a 3-2 victory over West Virginia in Lubbock on May 16, 2014. Tadlock owns a collegiate career record of 506-178 in 11 years as a college head coach with nine seasons at Grayson College (435-127) and two seasons at Tech (71-51).

Tech tied a school record in 2014 with 33 home wins (1993) and set a new school record holding its opponent to two or fewer runs 30 times (25-5 record). Tech also set the following school records in 2014 – shutouts (9), ERA during aluminum bat era (since 1974, 3.11), fielding percentage (.980), ERA in Big 12 games (4.09), games played (66), innings pitched (587.2), putouts (1,763) and assists (809).

Tech was solid in all three phases during 2014. They ranked among the top three in the Big 12 in 12 statistical categories while leading the league in slugging percentage and triples and finishing second in the league in runs, hits, doubles, home runs and RBI.

Outfielder Tyler Neslony became the first Red Raider to lead the Big 12 in batting (.375) while first baseman Eric Gutierrez led the league in home runs (12) and RBI (58), becoming just the second Red Raider to accomplish that feat in the Big 12 era and the first since 2004. Second baseman Bryant Burleson and outfielder/designated hitter Adam Kirsch tied for the Big 12 lead in doubles (21) while Kirsch, the 2014 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year (second time a Red Raider to earn award), led the league in slugging percentage (.560), just ahead of Gutierrez (.539).

Tech finished third in the country in triples (26) and ranked sixth in both double plays turned (65) and fielding percentage (.980). Overall, the Red Raiders ranked among the top-30 in the country in 10 statistical categories.

Tadlock guided the Red Raiders to a 16-game home win streak to end the 2014 season – a new school record for consecutive home wins to complete the season. That streak was also the longest active home win streak in the nation to end the 2014 season.

Tech fans packed Rip Griffin Park all season, including back-to-back sellouts at the NCAA Super Regional with 4,811 in attendance on both days and with 89,355 for the season – a total that ranked 20th in the nation.

Tadlock and his staff have received national honors from each of its first two recruiting classes. Tadlock and staff's first recruiting class (2013 graduates) received a No. 24 ranking by Perfect Game and a No. 27 national ranking by Collegiate Baseball. Tadlock and the Red Raider coaching staff had a 13th ranked recruiting class in 2014 by Collegiate Baseball – a mark that tied the record for highest ranked class in school history.

The accolades and honors poured in for the Red Raiders in 2014 with six players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Players Draft or signing a free agent contract with an MLB organization following the draft. A pair of players – both whom had not been drafted previously in their careers – were selected in the top-10 rounds with left-handed pitcher Chris Sadberry going in the sixth round (Miami Marlins) and catcher Hunter Redman taken in the eighth round (Los Angeles Dodgers).

For the first time in school history the Red Raiders had a pair of Freshman All-America selections in consecutive seasons – both under Tadlock as head coach – as left-handed pitcher Dylan Dusek and Stephen Smith received the honor in 2014. The previous year, Eric Gutierrez and Jarrod Poteete were selected as two of the top freshmen in the country.

The Red Raiders had six All-Big 12 selections in 2014, including three first-team picks – a first for Tech since 2004. The Red Raiders also had three All-Big 12 second team selections, one Big 12 All-Freshman Team (Stephen Smith) member, the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year (Kirsch), three Academic All-Big 12 honorees, two ABCA All-Midwest Regional selections and Tyler Neslony who was named a finalist for the Gregg Olson Breakout Player of the Year Award. Tech had three Big 12 Player of the Week picks and had three players named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week.

Tadlock returned to his alma mater for the 2012 season as the program's associate head coach and recruiting coordinator following six successful seasons as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma.

Tadlock has coached 124 MLB Draft picks – including 19 players who have advanced to MLB. He has mentored at least one draft pick during the last 20 seasons and has coached three first-round picks, 11 players taken in the top five rounds and 26 selections in the top-10 rounds.

Tadlock graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education from Texas Tech in May 1992. He also earned a master's degree in education in August 1994 from the University of Texas at Tyler. Tadlock and his wife, Kelly, have two children: Chloe and Benjamin. Tadlock is originally from Denton, Texas and was born December 21, 1968.

CARPENTER IS FIRST RED RAIDER FROM EMPIRE STATE IN OVER 34 YEARS

Texas Tech junior RHP/OF Quinn Carpenter came to the South Plains after spending two years at Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa, but his original home is Goshen, New York. The Red Raiders have had players from all over the country - and even other countries - throughout the years - but New York hasn't been one of them. In fact, Carpenter is the first Red Raider with a hometown in the state of New York in over 34 years (since 1981).

LYONS SELECTED TO REPRESENT BIG 12 CONFERENCE AT NCAA CONVENTION IN WASHINGTON

Texas Tech sophomore outfielder Anthony Lyons had a memorable start to 2015 as he was selected as 1-of-3 Big 12 Conference student-athletes to represent the league attending and voting at the NCAA Annual Convention in Washington during the middle of January. Lyons was also 1-of-3 baseball student-athletes in the country who were selected to attend the convention. Other baseball student-athletes were Clemson junior RHP Patrick Andrews and Florida senior INF Josh Tobias.

GUTIERREZ NAMED TO PRESEASON USA BASEBALL GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD WATCH LIST

Texas Tech 1B Eric Gutierrez was named to the USA Baseball 50-player Golden Spikes Award Watch List, an award given annually to the top amateur baseball player in the country. Gutierrez became the seventh Red Raider to make the prestigious award watch list since 1995 and only the third Tech player to be selected during the last 17 years. Other Red Raiders to be selected since 1995: RHP Trey Masek (2013), RHP Chad Bettis (2010), RHP Shane Wright (1998), C Josh Bard (1998), 1B Joe Dillon (1997 - Finalist) and 3B Clint Bryant (1995 - Finalist).
